

party on! and on, and on...

tip!

To serve a ginger soy dipping sauce with the Oriental Party Pak, simply grate fresh ginger into soy sauce. Not only does the ginger inject a fresh, exotic flavour, but it also aids in digestion. So you can keep nibbling!

Oriental Party Pak

This party pak can do double duty as a meal thanks to the 54-56 pieces in each box.

Make your list, check it twice...have you forgotten anything? If we had to guess, we'd say you forgot to write down the most sought-after item of all: time! Time to enjoy your family and friends to the fullest, all the while noshing on fabulous finger foods. It is possible! At least when you throw a party with M&M it is. Our pop-in-the-oven hors d'oeuvres and appetizers are prep-free, leaving you time to sit back, relax and make the most out of each and every celebration. Ahhh, that's more like it.
